HIGH- STYLE ROOMS

with BLUE ACCENT WALLS

A dose of color never fails to inject personality into an interior. If you're looking for an easy way to transform your room, consider a bit of blue. Certain shades, like periwinkle, can create a calming feel and others (think cobalt or teal) are ideal for those who love nothing more than a touch of drama. Get inspired to bring perspective to a room by browsing these 60 blue accent wall ideas from Dering Hall.

STRIKING

INTERIORS With Wallpapered Ceilings

Next time you're browsing beautiful wallpaper designs, consider how one may look on the ceiling. Extend wallpaper from the walls to the ceiling, use a bold ceiling to contrast neutral walls, or mix and match a patterned ceiling with colorful walls. Discover ways to add color, texture, and pattern to your space when you browse these 25 ceiling wallpaper ideas.

COLORFUL ACCENTS

A zig-zag wallpapered ceiling introduces color to this master bedroom by Denise McGaha Interiors.

SOPHISTICATED NEUTRALS

Here, dark wood-paneled walls and neutral furnishings serve as the perfect contrast to the bright ceiling wallpaper. Design by Eve Robinson Associates.

NEW YORK RETREAT

Design by Eclectic Home.

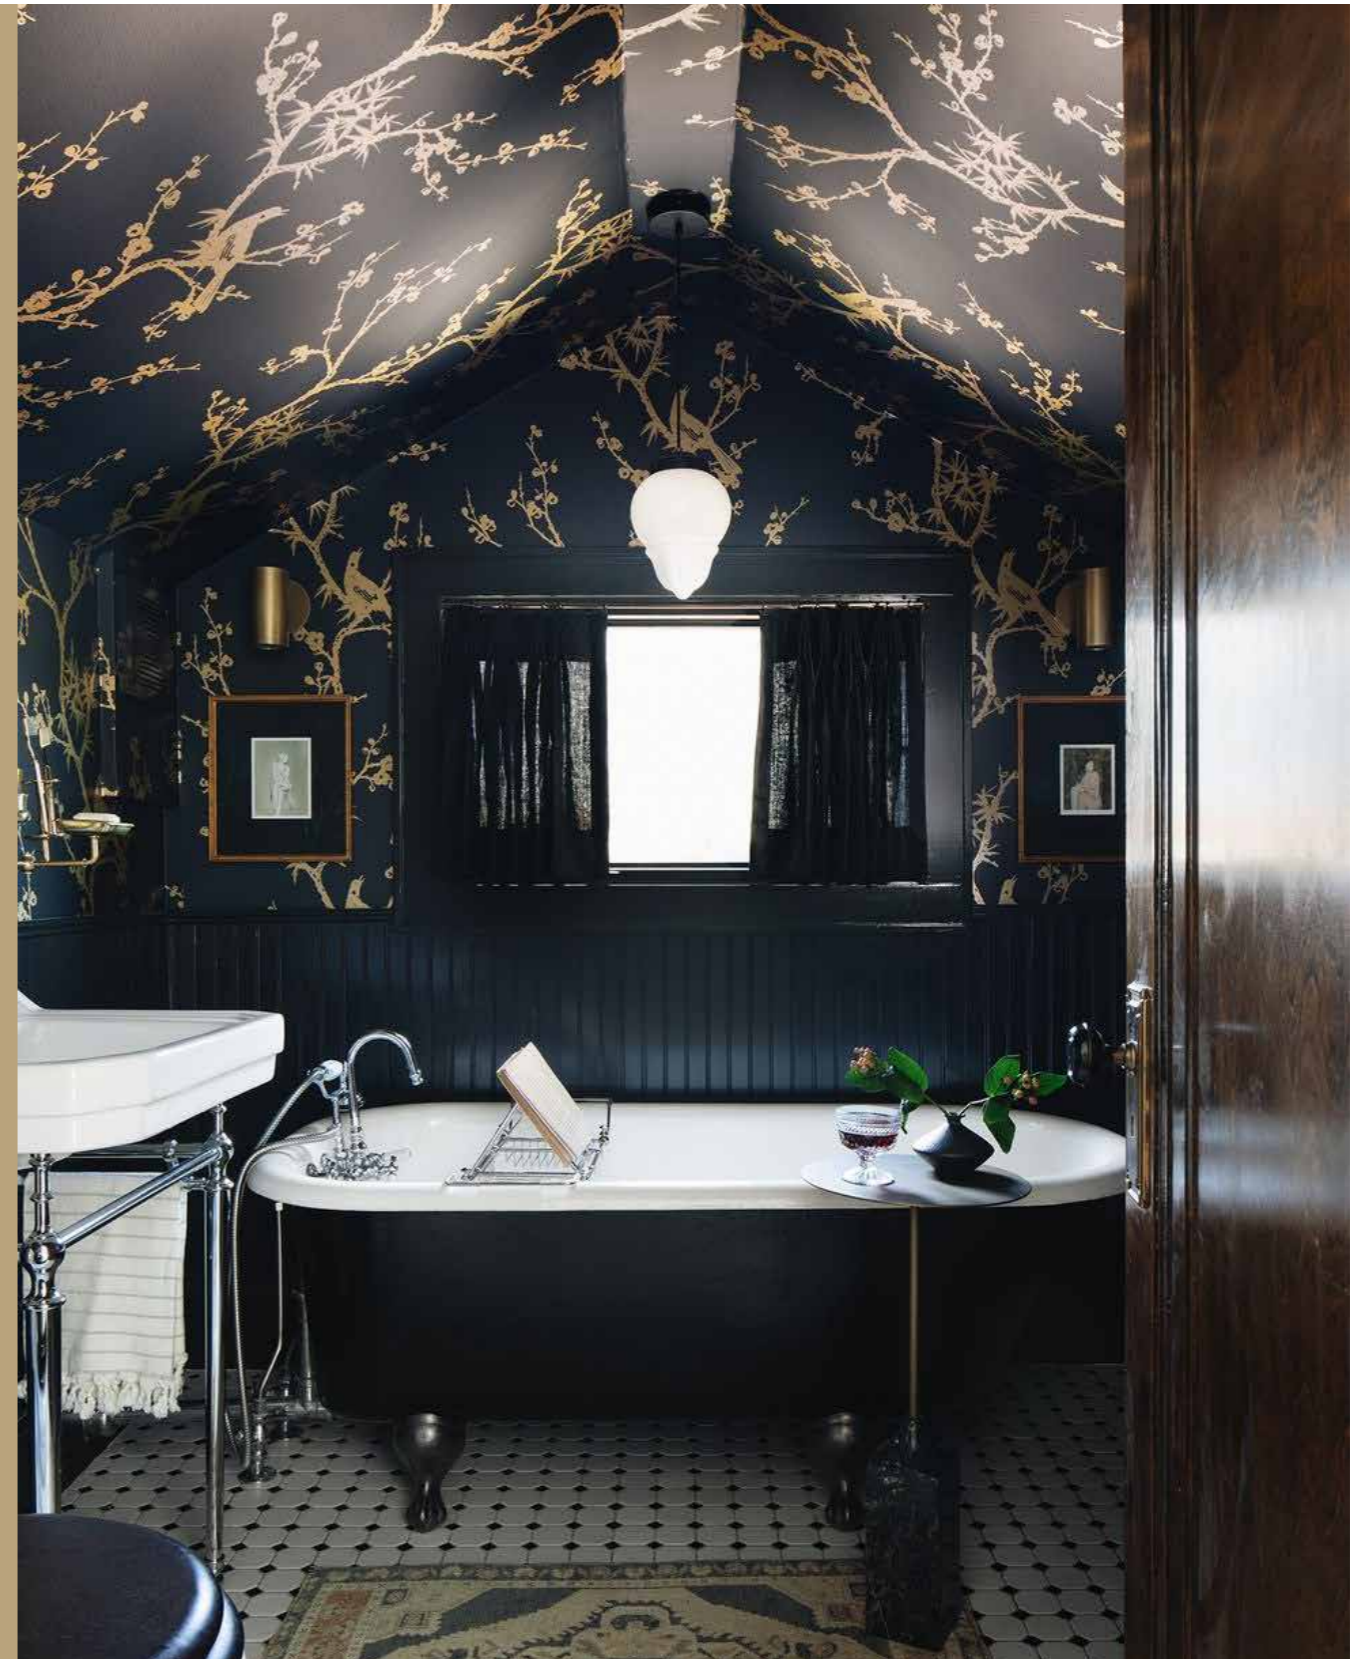

STRIKING & SOPHISTICATED

In this formal living room by Jeff Schlarb Design Studio, a striking wallpapered ceiling is paired with an oversized chandelier.

VINTAGE CHARM

Black wood paneling is paired with a dark wallpaper in the bathroom of this 1920s bungalow by reDesign Home.

BLACK & WHITE

Graphic shades complement the black and white patterned ceiling in this contemporary office by Holly A. Kopman Interior Design.

INSPIRED BY NATURE

A nature-inspired interior by Denise McGaha Interiors has a wallpapered ceiling that resembles lily pads, as well as blue and green tones throughout.

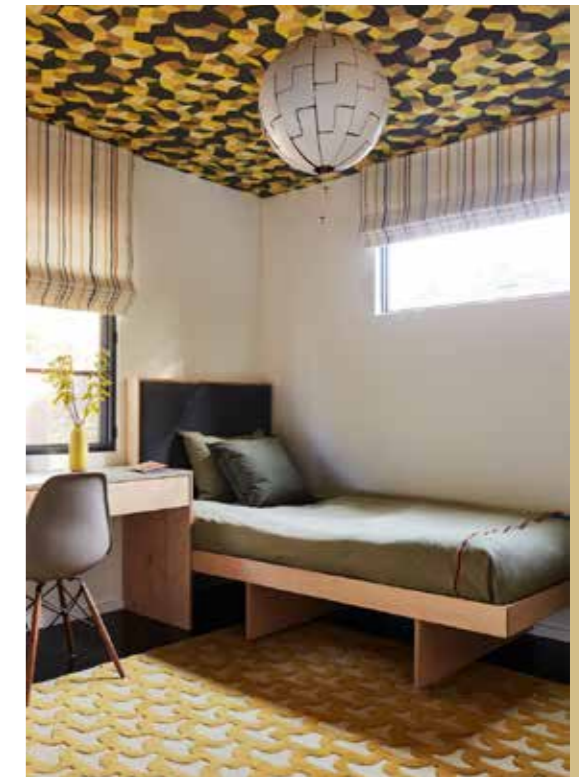

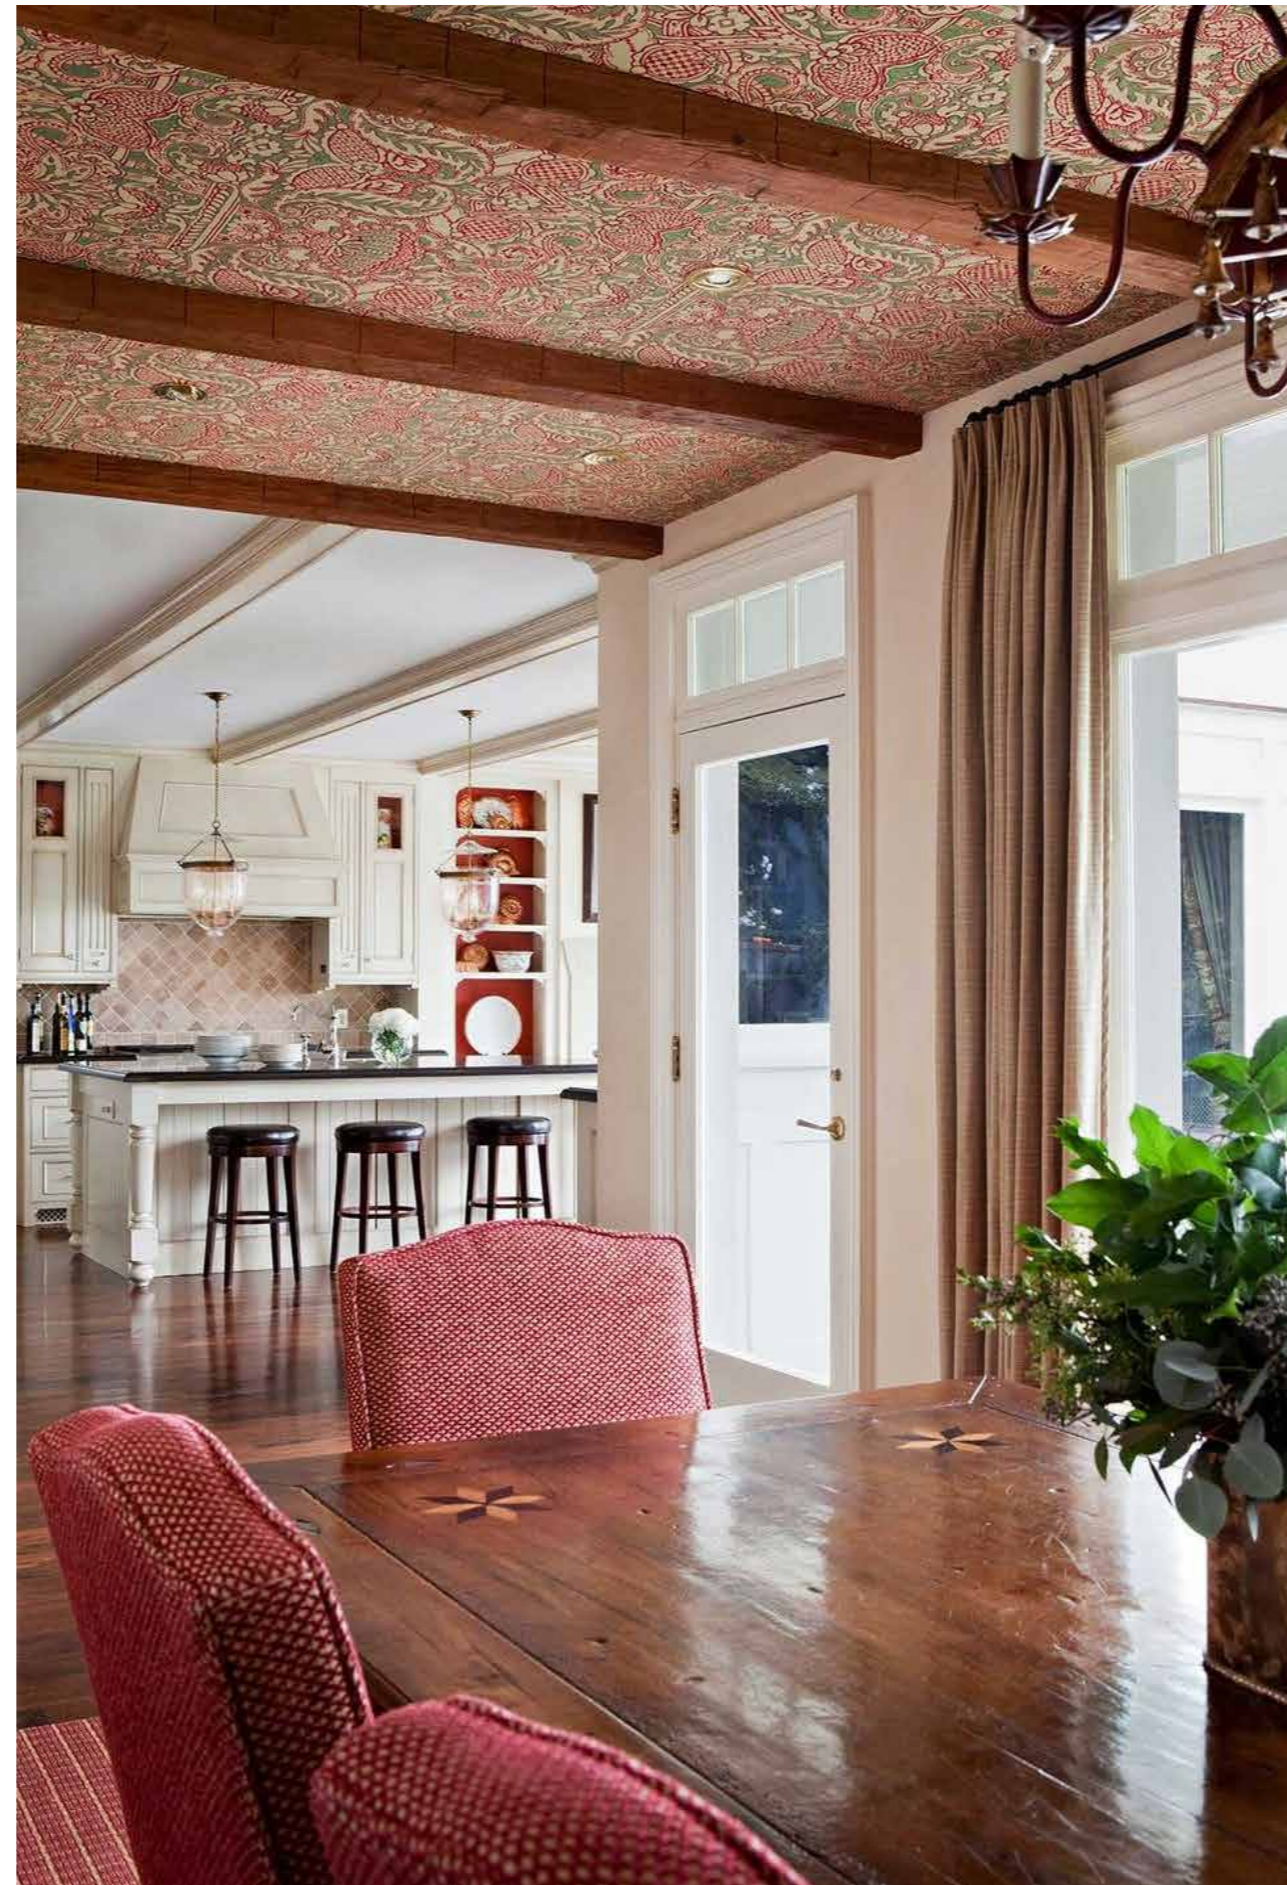

SHADES OF RED

From the furnishings to the wallpapered ceiling, this open-concept home embraces shades of pink and red. Architecture by Tim Barber Ltd.

RICH BROWNS

A cozy, mauve brown living room by Robin Gannon Interiors has a brown and white patterned wallpapered ceiling.

PLAYING WITH PATTERNS

Blending yellows, greens, and browns, a geometric wallpapered ceiling adds intrigue to this child's bedroom in Palo Alto, California. Design by Alden Miller Interiors.

STYLISH & STRIKING

The striped wallpapered ceiling adds a level of sophistication to this library with built-in bookshelves and antique touches. Design by Mendelson Group.

COLORFUL & CREATIVE

GREEN KITCHENS

SUBTLE GREEN

An elegant, understated shade of green boosts this Connecticut kitchen's style factor. Design by Rachel Reider Interiors.

LAYERS OF GREEN

In Martyn Lawrence Bullard's glamorous West Hollywood kitchen, varied shades of green add visual interest to everything from the cabinetry to the custom stools and Moroccan tile from Zellij Gallery.

MINT GREEN

In this kitchen by Maureen Stevens Design, mint green cabinets create an attractive contrast to the brass hardware and Moroccan handmade tiles.

OLIVE GREEN

A windowless kitchen designed by Blythe Home benefits from deep olive green cabinetry.

SEAWEED STAIN

In this farmhouse kitchen by Haver & Skolnick Architects, traditional paneled cabinets are washed with a slightly transparent rich sea green.

LIME GREEN

It may seem like an unusual choice for a kitchen, but the Benjamin Moore's Bright Lime hue used in this cheery kitchen brightens and energizes upon first glance. Red accents pop against the green for a palette evocative of apple trees on a sunny summer day.

GLAZED GREEN

This wide-open Australian kitchen makes a bold statement with a curving sage green backsplash that climbs from countertop to ceiling. The glossy ceramic tiles were handcrafted in Spain.

HUNTER AND MINT

In this Bedford, New York weekend retreat, the kitchen counters and backsplash are a deep green stone, the range is by Wolf, and the two mint pendant lights are by Muuto.

SEAGRASS

Seagrass toned cabinets in a barnwood double-height kitchen by Kristina Crestin Design.

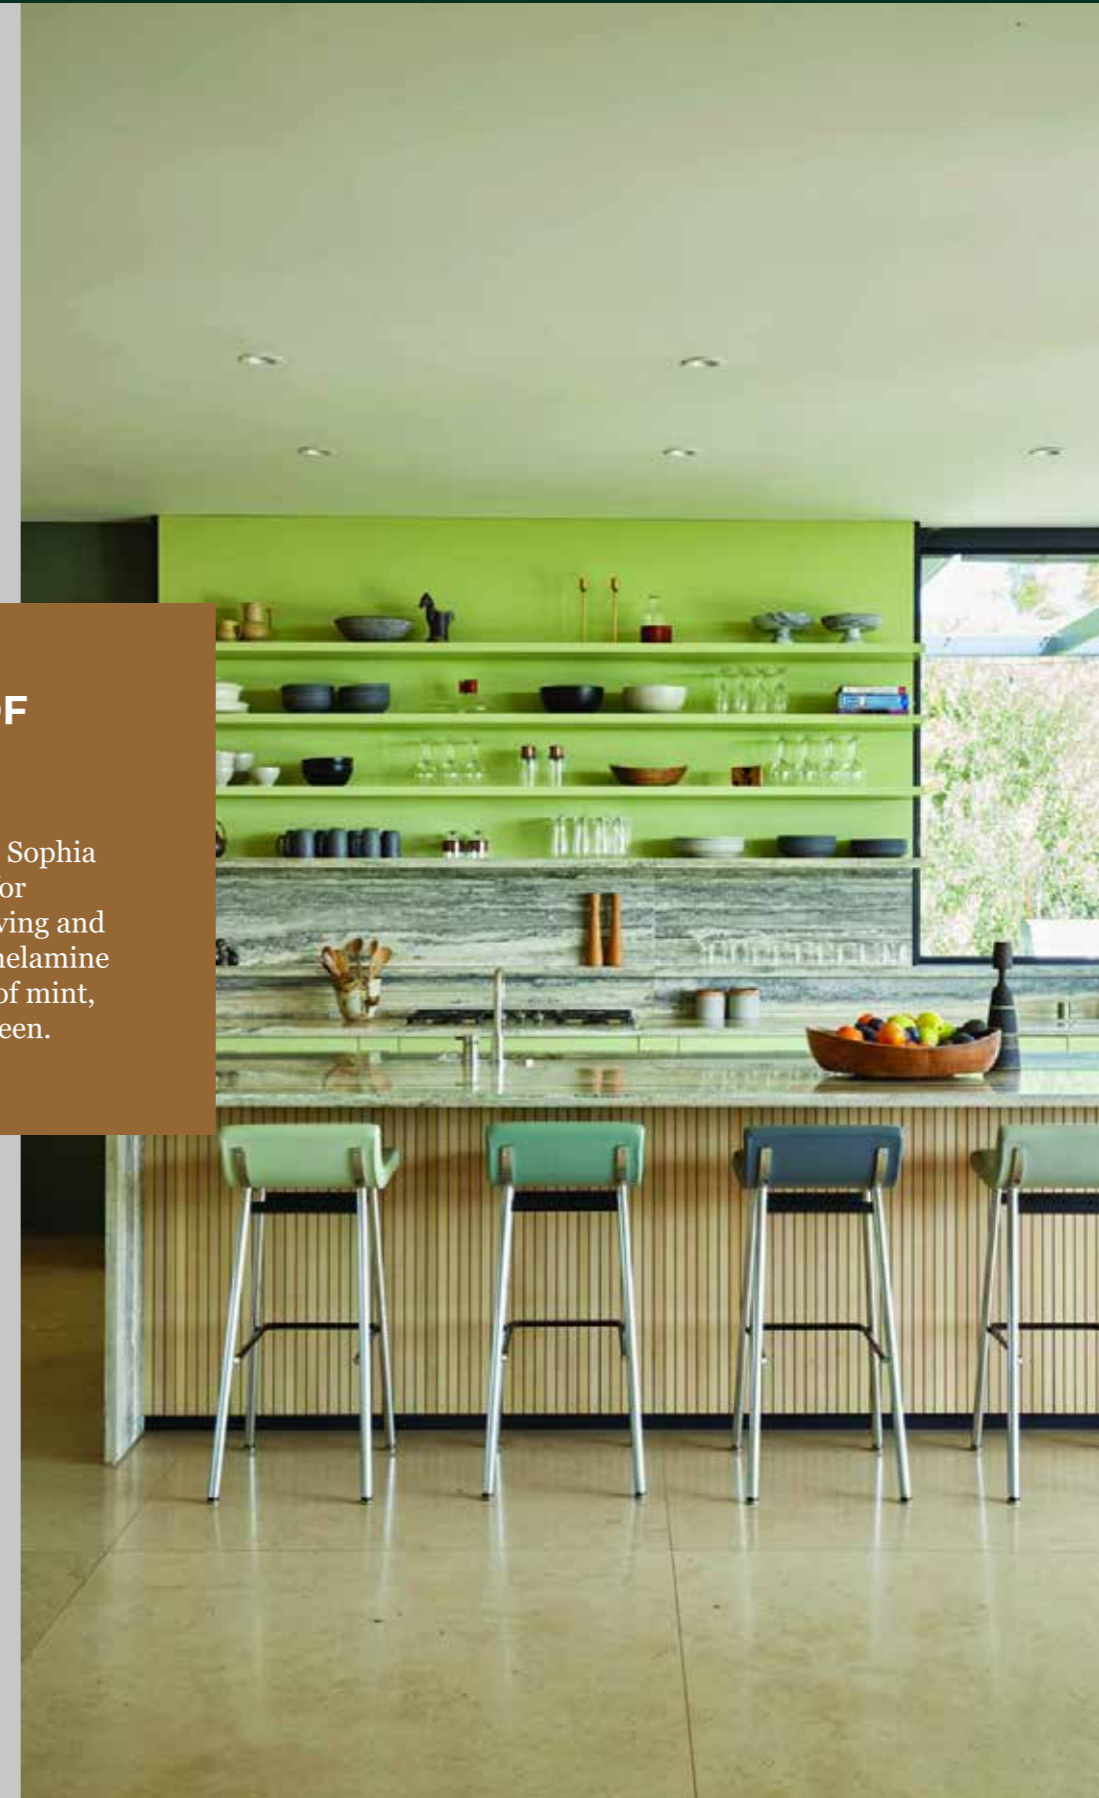

OLIVE GREEN

In this earthy Greek island home, the kitchen's doors, window frames and custom cabinetry are all splashed with a custom green color that is reflected in accent pieces throughout the home. The kitchen countertops are poured concrete.

SHADES OF CITRON

Girlboss founder Sophia Amoruso opted for citron open-shelving and cabinetry, plus melamine stools in shades of mint, jade, and gray green.

FOREST GREEN

A soft green tile backsplash in this rustic Montana guesthouse kitchen pairs with evergreen arrangements around the windows and exposed beams. The kitchen range and hood are by Thermador, the custom island is of cherry with an oak butcher-block countertop.

RUSTIC GREEN

The quaint green wall in this refurbished summer camp sets of stools by Julian Chichester line the vintage bar, which was bought locally at the Tyler Florence Shop, the sink fittings are by Lefroy Brooks, and the cane chair, found at the Santa Monica flea market, has cushions of Josef Frank linen by Svensket Tenn.

LEAFY GREEN WALLPAPER

In a 19th-century Northern California home, green leaf wallpaper by Pierre Frey brings the freshness of the outdoors inside. The kitchen table and chairs are by Howe and the bench is from Past Perfect.

PASTEL GREEN

Amanda Seyfried's cozy home in the Catskills, designed by Brooklyn-based firm General Assembly, is full of subtle, gentle color. The kitchen is defined by a geometric green backsplash and pale green cabinetry.
