Designed To Be Distinguished

Mahallati is an international interior design, manufacturing and production firm based in the Island of the Gods, Bali. With a team of over 120 experts in related fields and over 40 years of collective industry experience, we work closely with our clients to create exceptional work. Our innovative workflow results in a true end to end solution and our growing portfolio of successfully completed design projects has won awards and hearts across 3 countries.

We're Thinking Through Our Clients

We know that excellence is not only in the grand first impression of a completed design but is also delivered through the details.

That's why we continually answer challenging questions from our clients' perspective. We create livable spaces that speak to our clients' needs through a carefully cultivated and collaborative visual language. We craft experiences. We understand that great design doesn't just inform a space, it transforms it.

We take communication seriously and always take the time to really understand our clients, as people with their own aesthetic tastes. That's where our expertise in all aspects of furniture design can help you make the right choices before committing to a project.

Architects, designers, graphic artists, laborers, project managers, builders, production managers, researchers and more, all under one-roof and at your service.
